Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Incorporated
The Founding Jewels

The Founders of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc., affectionately known as the Jewels, were no ordinary achievers. Given the racial attitudes in 1906, their accomplishments were monumental. As Jewel Henry Arthur Callis stated, the half-dozen African American students at Cornell University during the school year 1904-05 did not return to campus the following year, the incoming students in 1905-06 were determined to bind themselves together to ensure that each would survive in the racially hostile environment. In coming together, "they remained steadfast to the ideal of a Greek letter fraternity, who did not waver in their efforts to bring about the realization of their vision, and who dared to be pioneers in an untried field of student life." These young men of daring became exceptional examples of scholarship, leadership and tenacity.

Henry Arthur Callis became a practicing physician, Howard University Professor of Medicine and prolific contributor to medical journals. Often regarded as the "philosopher of the founders," and a moving force in the Fraternity's development, he was the only one of the "Cornell Seven" to become General President. Prior to moving to Washington, D.C., he was a medical consultant to the Veterans Hospital in Tuskegee, Alabama. He also was a founding member of the American Medical Association. Upon his death in 1974, at age 87, the Fraternity entered a time without any living Jewels. His papers were donated to Howard's Moorland-Spingarn Research Center.

Charles Henry Chapman entered higher education and eventually became Professor of Agriculture at what is now Florida A&M University. A university funeral was held with considerable Fraternity participation when he became the first Jewel to enter Omega Chapter in 1934. Described as "a Brother beloved in the bonds," Chapman was a founder of FAMU's Beta Nu Chapter. During the organizational stages of Alpha Chapter, he was the first chairman of the Committee on Initiation and Organization.

Eugene Kinckle Jones became the first and longest serving Executive Secretary of the National Urban League. A versatile leader, he organized the first three Fraternity chapters that branched out from Cornell—Beta at Howard, Gamma at Virginia Union and the original Delta at the University of Toronto in Canada. In addition to becoming Alpha Chapter's second President and joining with Callis in creating the Fraternity name, Jones was a member of the first Committee on Constitution and Organization and helped write the Fraternity's ritual. Jones also has the dual distinction of being one of the first initiates as well as an original founder. He died in 1954.

George Biddle Kelley became the first African American engineer registered in the state of New York. Not only was he the strongest proponent of the Fraternity idea among the organization's founders, the civil engineering student also became Alpha Chapter's first President. In addition, he served on committees that worked out the grip and ritual. Kelley was popular with the Brotherhood. He resided in Troy, New York and was active with Beta Pi Lambda Chapter in Albany. He died in 1963.

Nathaniel Allison Murray pursued graduate work at Cornell University after completing his undergraduate studies at Howard. He later returned home to Washington, D.C., where he taught in public schools. Much of his career was spent at Armstrong Vocational High School in the District of Columbia. He was a member of Alpha Chapter's first Committee on Organization of the new fraternal group, as well as the Committee on the Grip. The charter member of Washington's Mu Lambda Chapter was a frequent attendee of General Conventions. He died in 1959.

Robert Harold Ogle entered the career secretarial field and had the unique privilege of serving as a professional staff member to the United States Senate Committee on Appropriations. He was an African American pioneer in his Capitol Hill position. He proposed the Fraternity's colors and was Alpha Chapter's first secretary. Ogle joined Kelley in working out the first ritual and later became a charter member of Washington's Mu Lambda Chapter. He died in 1936.

Vertner Woodson Tandy became the state of New York's first registered black architect, with offices on Broadway in New York City. The designer of the Fraternity pin holds the distinction of being the first African American to pass the military commissioning examination and was commissioned First Lieutenant in the 15th Infantry of the New York State National Guard. He was Alpha Chapter's first treasurer and took the initiative to incorporate the Fraternity. Among the buildings designed by the highly talented architect are Saint Phillips Episcopal Church and Madame C. J. Walker's mansion in New York City. He died in 1949, at age 64.

Dr. Damon A. Williams - Keynote Speaker

Dr. Damon A. Williams is a visionary and inspirational leader, and also one of the nation's recognized experts in strategic diversity leadership, youth development, corporate responsibility, educational achievement, social impact, and organizational change.

He is a global thought leader having worked with more than 700 colleges and universities, Fortune 100 companies, foundations, and government agencies, as keynote speaker, strategist, educator, and social impact leader.

He received his Ph.D. from the University of Michigan Center for the Study of Higher and Post-Secondary Education (CSHPE), where he specialized in the area of organizational behavior and management. He received his master's degree in educational leadership and his bachelor's degree in sociology and black world studies both from Miami University.

As the University of Michigan celebrates her 200-year anniversary, he was recently awarded the Bicentennial Leadership Award, a one-time honor given to 20 trailblazing alumni, who exemplify the best of the academic and leadership values of the Universities 200,000 living alumni. He is also the 2017 recipient of the Western Reserve Academy – Waring Prize, the highest alumni award presented by the prestigious boarding school founded in 1826, to recognize exceptional leadership achievements to improve the human condition.

In 2013, he was awarded the coveted Inclusive Excellence Award of Leadership from the National Association of Diversity Officers in Higher Education (NADOHE), and a leadership commendation from the 13 research universities comprising the Committee on Institutional Cooperation (CIC) for his landmark contributions to diversity, equity, and inclusion strategy globally.

As Associate Vice Chancellor, Vice Provost, and Chief Diversity Officer, he founded the Division of Diversity, Equity, and Educational Achievement at the University of Wisconsin-Madison and served as a senior leader building the Division of Multicultural and International Affairs at the University of Connecticut, respectively. As scholar in residence for the American Council of Education (ACE) Fellows program and the American Association of Colleges and Universities Greater Expectations Institute, he launched his work nationally, helping hundreds of colleges and universities to transform their efforts in liberal education, STEM completion, improving student graduation rates, campus climate and inclusion, leadership development, faculty diversity, and curriculum reform.

Leading A National Movement to Empower the Centennial Generation

Disenchanted with his ability to truly expand the pipeline into higher education, and with his desire to empower a new generation of diverse leaders to enroll in college and pursue their dreams, he left his role on campus, to innovate a national movement, by joining the executive team of the Boys & Girls Clubs of America.

For four years, he served as senior vice president and chief education officer at the Boys & Girls Clubs of America (BGCA), where he led the program strategy for one of the most ambitious social impact plans in the history of the non-profit world, the Great Futures Campaign for Impact.

During his time at BGCA, he transformed the program strategy impacting 4 million Centennial Generation youth, those young people born after 1997 and coming behind the millennial generation. His work with national and local leaders generated an estimated 13B in return on investment impact in local communities annually.

During his time leading the BGCA Great Futures program strategy, he:

• Launched four National Centers of Excellence in the areas of, (1) Educational Foundations and Academic Innovation; (2) Leadership, Character, and Impact; (3) Teens, College, and Workforce Development; and (4) Health, Wellness, and Gender;

• Designed and led the program strategy resulting in nearly 500M in grants and gifts as part of the Great Futures Campaign for Impact with public and private partners including and not limited to Disney, Toyota, the Schwab Foundation, UPS, MLB, CDC, NSF, NASA, Taco Bell, Wallace Foundation, and Coca Cola;

• Led the turnaround of the BGCA's 10-year decline in teen membership, resulting in the first positive membership growth (+2%) in more than a decade;

• Created BGCA's first national STEM strategy, summer learning loss prevention program, and 21st century leadership skill development efforts;

• Established BGCA's first higher education access and national workforce development initiatives designed to prepare the Centennial generation for leadership, establishing new partnerships that allow club youth to access more than 250M in annual scholarships;

• Launched BGCA's first 24-7-365 digital youth education platform, My Future as a way of overcoming the new digital divide, providing digitally engaged, self-directed, STEM and multi-media learning experiences and opportunities for club youth globally;

A Trailblazing Scholar Leader

He is one of the founding architects of the "Inclusive Excellence Model" and is also one of the world's foremost authorities on diversity, equity, and inclusion; chief diversity officers; student achievement; and driving social impact and organizational change in the higher education, corporate, k-12, and social sectors.

Dr. Williams authored the best-selling, Strategic Diversity Leadership: Activating Change and Transformation In Higher Education (2013) and co-authored the first book ever written on the CDO role, The Chief Diversity Officer: Strategy, Structure, and Change Management (2013). The presidents of the American Educational Research Association (AERA), American Council of Education (ACE), American Association of Colleges and Universities (AACU), National Collegiate Athletics Association (NCAA), and the National Association of College and University Business Officers (NACUBO), have formally endorsed his scholarship.

He was a founding member of the Journal of Diversity in Higher Education, sponsored by the American Psychological Association, and contributed scholarship to the successful launch of the National Association of Diversity Officers in Higher Education (NADOHE), the nation's largest higher education diversity officer organization. He is also a member of the Journal of Negro Education Editorial Board.

His most recent publication is Voice, Choice, Access and Passion: Preparing the Centennial Generation for Leadership, one of the first publications on the Centennial Generation, youth born after 1997, and key strategies required to prepare them for leadership in a diverse, global, and interconnected world.

A New Chapter

Dr. Williams is launching the Center for Strategic Diversity Leadership & Social Impact, completing his new book on the Centennial Generation, extending his landmark study on diversity capabilities in organizational life, and engaged in translational research efforts on the educational achievement of boys of color and STEM preparedness for all youth.

Tau Lambda Chapter Education Foundation

Scholarship, Leadership and Service

The Tau Lambda Chapter Education Foundation, Inc., was established in 1978 as a 501(c)3 public charity. It has realized many accomplishments during its thirty-six year existence and the years of investments in educational and leadership programs are paying off and changing the lives of young men as planned. Since its inception, the foundation has contributed to the scholarship funds of Fisk University, Tennessee State University and to the United Negro College Fund. In 1999, the Foundation established a $10,000 Tuition Assistance Scholarship at Fisk University, and in 2003 it established a $25,000 Tuition Assistance Scholarship Endowment Fund at Tennessee State University.

Funds given to the Tau Lambda Chapter Education Foundation further the educational and philanthropic mission of the Foundation by promoting leadership, and by providing educational scholarship programs for the benefit of qualified candidates. The Foundation recognizes students who have demonstrated leadership skills, academic achievement and a commitment to community service.

The Foundation believes in the high ideals of the Fraternity, and that these ideals should be sustained and asserted. Your support makes it possible to help prepare tomorrow's leaders and for academically talented youth to experience a vital aspect of college life.

The work of the foundation is made possible by the generous support of corporations, local businesses, friends and contributions of Fraternity members. We appreciate the trust placed in its endeavors. A fifteen member volunteer board of directors guides the foundation's efforts.

By attending the annual Founder's Day Scholarship Luncheon or making a donation to the foundation, you partner with us implementing the foundations of success in making a profound impact on the lives of Nashville's area youth, and continuing to bring our vision to reality.

Whether you make a single gift or schedule reoccurring monthly or annual gifts, all donations are greatly appreciated. Contributions made to the foundation for its educational and charitable purposes offer tax advantages to donors.

2017-2018 Scholarship Recipients

Isaiah Cunningham
I am currently a Junior Entrepreneurship Major. I am involved in a few organizations on campus such as Alpha Kappa Psi Professional Business Fraternity, Student Orientation Assistant, Student Government Association and Scholars Academy.

Clarkston Ellerby
A freshman, duel degree Engineering Major, from Nashville, TN. I graduated from Hume Fogg High School in May of 2017. I am a member of NSBE and a part of the Honors College at Morehouse College. I enjoy playing Basketball, listening to and producing music, and I enjoy reading. I aspire to be a successful engineer.

Damarius Drumwright
I am nineteen years old. I am from Nashville Tennessee and have lived here my whole life.. I am currently enrolled as a freshman at Belmont University in the Mike Curb college of Entertainment and Music Business. My current major is Music Businesses. I am also currently in the midst of changing my major. My current career aims are to work in the music industry I‘ have not decided on anything since I am redirecting the path I will be taking toward my major. Although, I do not have any current aims for my career I know for sure that no matter what I am doing I want to work with children in some form or shape.

Currently I am involved with multiple organizations on campus which include: Chamber orchestra, University Singers, a member or the Core council, President of Community Council, and a part of the Bruin recruiters.

Jaron Hayes
An Architectural Engineering major at Tennessee State University. I want to begin by expressing my extreme gratitude for this scholarship awarded to me by the Tau Lambda Education Foundation. I am very thankful for the scholarship I received. The financial support has provided me an ease of mind during my college experience. I am enrolled at Tennessee State University with a major in architectural engineering. So far, I have received high marks in courses with three A’s along with three B’s. I plan to continue with this trend throughout my college matriculation and intend to set myself up for a successful and profitable architectural career. Again, I thank you very much for the opportunity and acknowledgement. My goals are now closer to fulfillment.

2017-2018 Scholarship Recipients

Jazon Hayes

Jazon is attending the University of Tennessee at Chattanooga. I want to give a genuine thank you to the Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc. for providing me with a scholarship, which has so greatly impacted my college experience. This scholarship has helped to remove mental and financial stress I had before coming to the University of Tennessee at Chattanooga. I want to make it known that the Tau Lambda Education Foundation is forever appreciated. I continue enjoy school and become involved in various campus activities. Again, I thank you very much for the opportunity and acknowledgement.

Elijah Horton

Currently a freshmen Agriculture and Environmental Science major at North Carolina A&T State University. Horton has participated in several summer education programs including, Tennessee State University Agriculture Apprenticeship Program, the Purdue University Minority Engineering Program, University of Tennessee Engineering Summer Program (won best car design), TSU P.E.P.S.I Summer Program (won best bridge and robot design), and shadowed a chemical engineering professor at Vanderbilt University. He lists musician as an extracurricular skill.

Welton Pride

I am a Junior at the University of Tennessee majoring in Marketing with a Collateral in Entrepreneurship and minoring in Africana Studies.

Here on campus, I am heavily involved with multiple organizations with many leadership roles. I am on the executive board of Alpha Kappa Psi, Professional Business Fraternity as the Vice President of Marketing. I am also a Haslam College of Business Ambassador, as well as a Diversity Advancement Program Liaison. These positions are responsible for representing the Haslam College of Business at various events and special occasions as well as aiding in the recruitment of potential students who are interested in attending the University of Tennessee. I am also a peer mentor through the Multicultural Mentoring Program, where we lend our counsel and advice to freshman to enhance in their college experience and lead to a higher retention the students in the program. I am also a member of Campus Events Board (CEB) where we host events, speakers, and programs for the entire student body. And finally, I am a member of the National Society of Leadership and Success where we develop leadership skills and cultivate connections with fellow student leaders on campus.

I want to thank the Alphas for their constant support and pushing me to make the most out of myself. They have been so instrumental in my growth and maturation process and I am thankful for the assistance they have, and continue to give.

A Salute to Our Career Honoree

Brother Terrence Graves

Bro. Graves is originally from Atlanta, Ga. As a youth he moved to Decatur, Ga. Upon graduating from Southwest DeKalb High School, he had seven band scholarship offers. Bro Graves attended Alabama State University where he majored in Criminal Justice with a Specialization in Law Enforcement. Bro Graves was always interesting in becoming a member of law enforcement. While a student at Alabama State, he served in numerous leadership positions including Saxophone Section Leader, Vice President of the Band, Student Government, and Line President

After graduating from Alabama State University, Bro. Graves joined the Metro Nashville Police Department. In 2002, he became the first African-American assigned to the Firearms Section at Metro Nashville Police Department's Training Academy. Approximately one year later, he was lead firearms instructor. Bro Graves received specialized training as served as an instructor for numerous areas, including Strategos International, Low-Light Confrontations, Advanced Taser M26/X26, General Electric Driving Simulator, New Millennium Products, Inc., Force Protection / Anti-Terrorism, Tennessee Handgun Permit, National Rifle Association of America, Handgun and Shotgun, Advanced Taser M26/X26, Glock Inc.,

In 2010, he became one of Nashville's youngest African American Captains at the age of 35. In 2012 he ascended to the rank of Commander. Currently, Brother Graves serves as the longest tenured Precinct Commander, presiding over the North Precinct. Brother Graves and his wife, Saphana, have been married for 15 years. Together they have a 9 year old son, and 6 year old twins, a son and a daughter.

Special Recognition Honoree

Brother Dillard Brewster Montgomery

Born January 1,1936 in Memphis, Tennessee, Bro. Montgomery is a product of the Nashville City School System. After graduating from Pearl Senior High School in 1953, he attended The Art Institute of Chicago, and The University Of Illinois at Chicago's Navy Pier. Bro. Montgomery attended and graduated from The United States Air Force School Of Personnel at Scott Air Force Base, Belleville, Illinois in 1955. He achieved a Bachelor Of Science Degree in Music Education from Tennessee State University in 1962. While at TSU, he participated in The University Choir for four years. At the end of this period, was awarded the University Choir Award. Of a seventy plus member choir, only two students received this award. With a thesis focused on The Musical Preferences Of The North Nashville Community, He earned a Master Of Arts Degree in Music Education from TSU in 1969.

Bro. Montgomery taught in The Metropolitan Nashville Davidson County School System for 36 Years. While at Ford Greene Elementary School for 5 years, he wrote the words and music to The Ford Greene Alma Mater. He has been a General Music Teacher, Choral Director, School Pianist, and Member of The Principals' Advisory Committee. At W.A. Bass Junior High School and later W.A. Bass Middle School, he was General Music Teacher, Choral Director, Special Assistant to The Principal. Assistant Principal and ultimately becoming Principal of the school. It was in this position that he retired from the system in 1994.

Bro. Montgomery married Joyce Beale, and fathered a daughter named Lisa Jenean.

The Alpha Man

Who were the first Black (negro) college lads to see
The value of real Fra-ter-ni-ty
And vowed to ultimate transcendency?
The Alpha Man.

Who vowed to be the servants of all
To come when fellow man should call
To help another brother who happens to fall?
The Alpha Man.

Whose manly deeds and scholarship
Love for all mankind, be well equipped
Trying always worry and need to whip?
The Alpha Man.

Who in physical stature may be short and small
But to his community he's ten feet tall
Because of him fellow men may call
The Alpha Man.

Who's anxious to improve his own image
Who's not afraid, with hard knocks to scrimmage
Who tries to help all of human bondage?
The Alpha Man.

Who when at last it is his date
To be called to that eternal gate
In Omega Chapter he'll hear his fate
Well Done, good Alpha Man.

The Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity Hymn

(All Brothers Present)

In our dear, A Phi A, fraternal spirit binds
All the noble, the true and courageous.
Manly deeds, scholarship, and love for all Mankind, are the aims of our dear Fraternity.

Chorus
Alpha Phi Alpha; the pride of our hearts and loved by us dearly art thou.
We cherish thy precepts, thy banner shall be raised.
To thy glory, thy honor, and renown.

(Solo Only)
We hold ever aloft, noble ideals and aims, carrying out earth's and heaven's grand command.
Our true hearts ever strive, success' goal to gain.
That our Fraternity's praises may be sung.

(All)
College days swiftly pass, imbued with mem'ries fond.
And the recollection slowly fades away.
Our renowned A Phi A and dear fraternal bond.
May they ever abide and with us stay.

Lift Every Voice and sing

Lift every voice and sing
Till earth and heaven ring,
Ring with the harmonies of Liberty;
Let our rejoicing rise
High as the listening skies,
Let it resound loud as the rolling sea.
Sing a song full of the faith that the dark past has taught us,
Sing a song full of the hope that the present has brought us,
Facing the rising sun of our new day begun
Let us march on till victory is won.

Stony the road we trod,
Bitter the chastening rod,
Felt in the days when hope unborn had died;
Yet with a steady beat,
Have not our weary feet
Come to the place for which our fathers sighed?
We have come over a way that with tears has been watered,
We have come, treading our path through the blood of the slaughtered,
Out from the gloomy past,
Till now we stand at last
Where the white gleam of our bright star is cast.

God of our weary years,
God of our silent tears,
Thou who has brought us thus far on the way;
Thou who has by Thy might Led us into the light,
Keep us forever in the path, we pray.
Lest our feet stray from the places, our God, where we met Thee,
Lest, our hearts drunk with the wine of the world, we forget Thee;
Shadowed beneath Thy hand,
May we forever stand.
True to our God,
True to our native land.

- James Weldon Johnson

There Goes an Alpha Man

There goes a man of high impulse;
of princely mien and grace.
There goes a man of humble faith;
a credit to his race.
There goes a man of conscience vast with will to reach his goal.
There goes a man of lordly rank;
of heroes' stock and soul.
There goes a man of noble caste whom hardship cannot break there goes a man in merit clad whom duty won't forsake.
There goes a man in cultured verse who holds a sportsman's creed.
There goes a man too vigilant to bow to lust or greed
There goes a man whose life is spent in service not in scorn.
There goes a man whose majesty shines like a may time morn.
There goes a man who is a friend to love and duty truth.
There goes a man to help uplift the lives of wholesome youth.
There goes a man with industry and faith at his command.
There goes the best man in and out for he is an alpha man.
